Note From Youth Pastor...

As most of you know (or should by now, since I’m getting pretty big and it’s definitely not just all the food I’m eating...) Julius and I are having a baby! Of course we’re very excited and can’t wait for our new arrival, but at the same time it does mean lots of changes for us—and obviously some of our decisions will affect you. I will be sharing a little more about how everything came about on December 3rd but I have decided to take a maternity leave, and therefore after December I will be done and no longer leading Remix Youth. Honestly this was a really hard decision for me to make—since I just LOVE you guys so much and I love what I get to do every day. I debated over it for a while...but ultimately decided it was most important that I take this time with my new baby and my family while I had the opportunity, especially since it’s our first baby. I decided that no matter what I would never regret taking time to spend with my baby—so that’s the way I had to go. Even though I’ve made my decision and am sure about it, it doesn’t make it easy to leave. I’ve watched this youth group start from two kids and I’m just so proud of all of you. I know we’re going to have a great last couple months together and I’m so excited to see what God will do. My challenge to you is—keep running! Keep going deeper with God, and keep coming out to Remix—Great things are ahead!

“Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize.” 1 Corinthians 9:24

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.” Hebrews 12:1
